SISTERS SLEEP IN MORGUE TO LEAVE ROOM FOR THE SICK

EVERY AVAILABLE FOOT IS GIV-EN OVER TO PATIENTS IN ST. ELIZABETH HOS-PITAL.

DEPARTMENTS TOO SMALL

Supplies Are Piled in the Corridors
and Nurses' Living Rooms Because There Is No Space
Elsewhere—Wards
Overcrowded.

On the landing of the stairway which leads from the second to the third floors of St. Elizabeth hospital is a room, about five feet wide and eight feet long, where from five to more than a dozen lay nurses change
from street clothes to their nurse's garb and then back to street clothes
again every day. Pictures in that little room include a small mirror, a couch and a chair, where the tired
workers can rest during the few moments of leisure which their work permits them. Suit cases are stacked one on top of another, in the two corners not occupied by the chair and the couch.

Sleep in the Morgue.

That is all the space which the sisters in charge of the hospital can spare for the nurses. Every other bit of room is used to take care of patients, to store supplies and for their own living quarters, which are even more scant than the accommodations provided for the nurses. Although the hospital was designed for only fifty beds, there are never less than 60 patients in the institution, and often times there are 75 and even 80. Beds are crowded into wards so tightly that it is hard for the nurses to get around; patients are resting in halls,
while the sisters live in the basement
and in the attic, even going so far as to make a sleeping room of the morgue.

The need of additional hospital facilities has been apparent for several years and is growing daily. The present structure is overcrowded all the time and often it is impossible to take patients really in need of care because there are no facilities for taking care of them. Patients hardly on the road to recovery are forced to evacuate to make room for more urgent cases, all because the present
building is inadequate for Appleton's needs.

Lesson in Efficiency.

Yet despite these difficulties the sisters are carrying on a work which is a marvel to those who have taken the pains to investigate. The hospital is conducted on a basis of efficiency
which is an object lesson even to efficiency experts. The sisters have learned to make the best of their difficult situation and have evolved
many schemes for utilizing room, saving time and reducing expenses. They are past masters in the latter virtue, especially. The system of accounting and conservation baffles description and is in a large measure accountable for
the success of the local institution.
St. Elizabeth hospital was built in 1900 and at that time was regarded as a model institution. Hospital practice has progressed to such an extent in the last 19 years, however, that the building and its equipment is largely obsolete now. The building was large enough for the city then,
when people were not accustomed to going to the hospital except in most urgent cases and when the population was not as large. Now it cannot begin to take care of all the demands
made on it for service.

How It Is Done.

How the sisters meet the emergency and how they conduct the institution is an interesting story. Wards which were originally built to hold four beds now contain seven and sometimes eight, and they are always occupied. Many wards which should contain only one bed now have two, literally packed in. Wards built for two beds contain three and four and are so crowded that the nurses have difficulty in passing between the beds.
Modern hospital practice provides that beds should be at least eight feet
apart, but that is impossible in the local institution if a fraction of the persons clamoring for admittance are to be taken care of. Not only are all the rooms filled but beds are placed all along the halls where the patients are subjected to the scrutiny of every passerby, not the most pleasant experience. But this condition cannot be remedied until additional hospital facilities are provided.

No sleeping quarters are provided for private nurses. They must seek their rest in the same room with the patients or outside of the building.
As described earlier in this article,
they change their clothes in a little
"cubby-hole" built on the landing of a stairway. Their "dining room"
consists of a table, 18 inches wide and 10 feet long, placed in the drug-room on the first floor. This "dining-room" has no outside illumination
and is only four feet wide and 12 feet
long, but it is the best that the sisters can provide, and they feel that they are fortunate in having even that much room available.

Eight Sleep in Room.

Eight young girls, employed as maids, sleep in one room hardly large enough to hold the beds, let alone giving them sufficient room in which to dress. The quarters are so cramped it is impossible to provide the little workers with wardrobes, but the sisters are unable to improve this until the hospital is enlarged.
Between 400 and 450 meals for patients and nurses are prepared daily

Three States Pick Men For Frisco Meet

Conventions in Michigan, Indiana and Virginia Occupy Attention to Democratic Result—Pennsylvania Today—Obscure

(By Harold D. Jacobs)
By United Press Leased Wire

New York—While republicans were still trying to determine just what appeared in yesterday's Pennsylvania primary, democrats were holding three important state conventions today.

The most interesting was in Michigan. Democrats of that state gave Herbert Hoover a plurality in a preferential primary early last month.
Hoover has since repudiated the democratic party but the 30 delegates
have been credited to him, nevertheless, giving him second place among democratic candidates on the basis
of instructed delegates.

Today's convention was expected to undo the work of the primary, so far as Hoover is concerned.

The growing boom of Governor
James M. Cox, of Ohio, has its home in an adjacent state and was believed to have an important bearing in action of the convention.

Indiana Important

Politicians also were watching the convention in Indiana, as they foresaw launching there of a definite drive against the candidacy of William C. McAdoo.

Virginia, believed to be a strong McAdoo state, was choosing 24 delegates at a convention today.

The sole republican activity today

was a state convention in Alabama
where 14 delegates were to be selected.

The situation in Pennsylvania, following yesterday's republican primary, was as obscure as anticipated.
Lack of a real preferential vote made it appear certain the state's second choice candidate would not be known positively until the balloting started at Chicago, Governor William G.
Sprout is expected to be first choice
of 76 delegates.

As a result of the democratic primary, Pennsylvania's 76 delegates are expected to support Attorney General
Palmer, "favorite son."

Two Georgia Delegations

Atlanta, Ga.—Georgia will send two delegations to the democratic national convention at San Francisco.
Administration forces who gave Attorney General Palmer a plurality in the April primaries were defeated in convention here last night but in rum-pession early today, named additional candidates to the caucus to contest
for seats.

Supporters of Senator Hoke Smith
and Thomas E. Watson, anti-administration candidates defeated in the primaries, united and instructed their delegation to vote for any candidate for president who opposed the national administration.

U. S. CONTROL OF FREIGHT UP TODAY

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COM-MISSION MAY DECIDE ON
FREIGHT PRIORITIES
LATE TODAY

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington—Executives of the principal railroads of the country
and members of the interstate commerce commission were to confer today on the question of government control of freight shipments.

The commission was to make known its decision late today or tomorrow on the petition of the executives asking the government body to resume issuance of freight priority list.

Backed by state utility commissions, shippers organizations and chambers of commerce, the interstate commerce commission already is making efforts to relieve the nation-wide traffic congestion. Trains of empty grain and coal cars are being rushed across the country under special orders.

In part, the interstate commerce commission has already assumed direction of car service. Yesterday it announced that trains of empty cars were being routed to the grain and coal centers. This was done by the railroads presumably with the interstate commerce commission's consent.

PREDICT INCREASED RATES

Sixty Per Cent Boost in Freight and Passenger Rates a Possibility
—Union Leader Years for Government Control
of Rails

(By Don E. Chamberlin)
By United Press Leased Wire

Chicago—The United States railroad labor board today refused the petition of "outlaw" railroad employes
demanding recognition and a hearing
on their requests for higher wages.
"The board will not be interfered with by illegal associations," said Chairman R. M. Barton in ruling on the petition.

The board's ruling means that the strikers only recourse is to return to work and await a decision on the demands of more than 2,000,000 railroad employes for an annual increase of one billion dollars. Strikers demands are included in demands presented by the Switchmen's Union of North America, which the board has under consideration.

Chicago—Striking "outlaw" railroad switchmen today served notice
on the United States railroad labor board here that their demands for recognition and higher wages must be heard before it passes on demands of 2,000,000 railroad employes for an annual wage increase of a billion dollars.

Declaring their number is a force
to be reckoned with, the strikers,
through John Griman, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association,
the original "outlaw" union, filed petitions asking they be given a hearing.
They claim to represent 200,000 railroad employes who have tired of waiting for action on increases.

The strikers were represented by a delegation at today's hearing which considered demands of engineers for increased wages.

Big Rate Increases

In anticipation of picketing or demonstrations, police have been stationed nearby ready to be of assistance in case of emergency.

That demands of railroad employes
if granted, will mean a sixty per cent
or higher increase in freight and passenger rates was the belief of railroad men here today. They point out that increases demanded average
from 72 per cent to 124 per cent.

Wages Not to Blame

"If rates do go up, it will not be because of wage increases," said Martin P. Ryan, head of the carmen's union.

"Government control was the best thing for everybody," he said.

"Private management is making itself felt in a very unpleasant manner. All rules are being enforced in disciplinarian fashion. There is no particular reason for doing it except that the management is getting back to its old pre-war habit of riding the men.
It is particularly noticeable because of the fine treatment the men received under government control."

It is because of the temper of the men caused by this situation that "it is absolutely necessary relief be granted," Ryan said.

SEE MINE WAGE INCREASE IN CALL FOR CONVENTION

By United Press Leased Wire
Mt. Carmel, Pa.—The following telegram was received here today
from the secretaries of the three anthracite districts of the United Mine Workers of America.

"Tri-district convention will convene at Wilkesbarre, Pa., Monday, May 24, 1920. Official calls will be sent out later. Local unions will proceed to elect delegates."

This was interpreted here as indicating miners in conference with the operators in Washington had reached a new agreement on a wage scale
which would be submitted at the district convention.

RUSLOFF ASSUMES CONTROL OF RUSS ARMY

By United Press Leased Wire
London—General Alexis Brusiloff,
Russian military leader, has assumed supreme control in Russia as far as military affairs are concerned, the correspondent of the Daily Telegram
says he has been informed.

Brusiloff's assumption of power followed his selection as head of the soviet war council, the correspondent
said, adding that even Nikolai Lenin,
the soviet premier and Leon Trotsky,
his minister of war, had been relegated to secondary positions as to conduct of his army.

LESSENER BUYING AND TIGHT MONEY REDUCES PRICES

FALLING PRICES REPORTED IN ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY
AS EXTRAVAGANT BUY-ING STOPS

MOVEMENT IS GENERAL

Price Reductions are Reported From Many Cities—Railroad Congestion Is Factor in Situation—Food Prices
Remain Up

By United Press Leased Wire

New York—Prices are on the toboggan, leading merchants and business men here believed today.

Cutting prices from 15 to 30 per cent on all lines of general merchandise by many stores is the "indicator"
of the break, they agreed.

New York newspapers today carried many advertisements of stores
announcing drastic cuts in prices.

Buying Stagnant

The drop was due to the gradual lackening of public buying and tight money conditions. The opinion of financial leaders. They pointed to the huge sales of Liberty bonds on the New York exchange yesterday as an indication of the money market condition. The total sales of all issues of Liberty bonds were $27,- 958,500. Because of difficulty in obtaining loans from banks, war bonds
were being sold to provide money for conducting business.

Members of the National Association of Manufacturers here for their annual convention, expressed the belief that the peak of high prices was reached.

The drop in prices was attributed to "dull buying" by Joseph Appel,
of Wanamaker's, the first store here
to announce a drastic price cut.

Surplus of Materials

"Why buying is dull, there is certain to be a surplus of materials and a surplus of materials is certain to make a reduction in prices," he said.

Garment manufacturers agreed with this statement saying that surplus of the garment market would show only minimum purchases.

The cloth market in New York reported trading exceptionally quiet.

The slump has not hit the food market yet, according to statements of grocers today, but they indicated
that they expected a slight decline.

Prices Reach Peak

Chicago—High prices have reached their peak and present price slashing, fast becoming general throughout the country, will spread, merchants and businessmen here predicted today.

One Chicago department store
joined the price cutting movement
today, offering men's suits, formerly selling from $45 to $60, for from $20 to $35.

Food brokerage houses today predicted food prices will fall soon.

"They are surely on the downward trend," said T. O. Weiss, a commission merchant.

Weiss says the cause of the tumbling of prices is due to belief that the situation in this country is fast returning to normal.

See Break in Food

Experts here saw the possibilities of a break in food prices in the decline in yesterday's grain market.
Further losses will bring down prices
for certain, they said.

Some grains yesterday lost six and seven cents.

Veal and lamb prices have been lowered two cents a pound wholesale
within the week, dealers declared.
Importation of Argentine and New Zealand meats caused the fall, they said.

Some dealers here today blamed
the fall in prices on the uncertainty
of the present situation.

No Break in Milwaukee

Milwaukee—No general break in prices is expected by Milwaukee clothing merchants despite the big cut in prices by one local department store
last week, according to consensus of opinion of merchants here today.

"It is usual at this time of the year
to reduce prices on spring clothing to clean up the shelves," A. P. Rosenberg, manager of Rosenberg's, a large store, said, accounting for a slight drop in prices.

"Goods will not be cheaper this fall
or winter as there is no indication of a break in market, due to the fact that every element entering into the cost of merchandise is still high," said
Henry Greenblatt, of E. Schuster company.

Both claimed woolen merchants

were making enormous profits and retailers small.

CONGRESS PLANS TO ADJOURN JUNE 4

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—June 4 has been decided on as the date for congressional recess or adjournment. It has not yet been definitely decided whether a sine die adjournment will be taken.

June 4 is the Friday before the republican national convention which meets in Chicago the following Tuesday. There is a strong sentiment for a sine die adjournment, which would mean that congress would not come back until December.

ing this evening. J. A. Darnaby, who tation of the musical comedy, "Let's

By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—Immediate movement of piled-up freight is necessary to reduce price levels and relieve the strain on the country's credit system,
bankers today informed Chairman
Clark, of the interstate commerce commission.

Increased freight rates immediately, was the principal remedy proposed to Clark.

The committee of the bankers who have been meeting with the federal reserve board this week, called on Clark and presented a resolution embodying recommendations adopted at the bankers' conference.

The same resolution was presented to the United States shipping board.
The resolution declares:

Suffers from Inflation.

"That the whole country is suffering from inflation of prices and credit; that this condition can be relieved by moving great stores of commodities piled up at this important shipping
centers and that this can only be relieved through upbuilding of railroad credit which must come through adequate and prompt increase in freight rates."

"And delay," the resolution said,
"means the paying of great cost directly and indirectly and places a burden on the credit system which in the approaching time for seasonal expansion may cause abnormal strain.
Even under the load of war inflation,
high price level and extravagance, the bank reserves would probably be sufficient if quick transportation could be assured during the time of the greatest strain."

Increases Urged.

The resolution then urged both the shipping board and the interstate commerce commission to give "increases such immediate effect as may be warranted under their authority."

The Michigan public utilities commission and a delegation of Michigan congressmen headed by Senator
Townsend, all called on Commissioner
Ashton and told him that the coal situation in Michigan was so serious
that public utilities and the great automobile factories were threatened.

FLOUR PRICE NOT TO JUMP, AVERS BARNES

FREEDOM IN FIXING PRICES IS NEEDED TO PREVENT FOR-EIGNERS GRABBING
WHEAT SUPPLY

By United Press Leased Wire

Washington—Julius Barnes, United States wheat director, today ridiculed predictions that flour soon
would cost $20 a barrel and bread 25
cents a loaf with the removal of government price restrictions on wheat
June 1.

"Prophecies of $20 flour and 25
cent bread have no justification," Barnes said.

"It is well to remember that only one year ago the same type of apprehensive minds saw nothing but a predicted wheat price and the loss
to this government of one billion dollars on the outstanding pledge which has since been redeemed without a dollar loss."

Barnes emphasized that unless some action is taken foreign buyers
will be in a position to buy practically all of America's wheat surplus at "prices dictated unduly low" during the coming movement.

Barnes indicated that there is good reason to fear that prices will break
hard. Elevators are crammed now with wheat, he said, and export has been greatly reduced. The nationwide car shortage has created artificially high prices of wheat at ports.

GENEVA TO BE SEAT OF WORLD LEAGUE

By United Press Leased Wire

Rome—The council of the league of nations in session here, has decided upon Geneva as the seat for the league's headquarters, it was learned.

The decision followed Switzerland's vote to become a member of the league.

The council also decided that the state desiring to join the league must first conform to its regulations regarding armaments, to be prepared by a league committee.

A message was sent to President
Wilson asking him to call a meeting of the league's general assembly.

and jewelry.

Brosel lost $750 in cash and $1,600

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM FOR COMMUNITY NIGHT

Community night will be held Friday of this week at the First Congregational church, with an attractive program. An educational weekly film is to be shown and the main picture will be "A Modern Musketeer," starring Douglas Fairbanks. Miss Doris Brenner will render three numbers at the organ. Several new songs are to be used in the community singing this week.

URGE WAR VETERANS TO WEAR UNIFORMS ON MEMORIAL DAY

AMERICAN LEGION BELIEVES NEW LOYALTY WILL BE AWAKENED BY LINES OF KHAKI AND BLUE

Wearing the uniform on Memorial day is to be one means of paying respect to the comrades who died on the fields of battle. Every ex-service man in Appleton is to be urged by the Oney Johnston post of the American Legion to don his military attire on that day. Not only is it the aim to make the day memorable by the reappearance of the khaki and blue, but it is hoped that a new love of country and flag will be borne back to a restless public by this demonstration.

Nationwide Movement

The movement along this line is not confined entirely to Appleton but is to be carried out by the American Legion all through the nation. It is thought that the higher motives of loyalty to country and appreciation of liberty and the American government will lift the people out of the realm of discontent and help restore happiness and peace.

The 1920 Memorial day will be the first at which all the boys are back home from overseas, as last year the 32nd Division and others were still absent at the time of observance. It is therefore looked forward to as the most memorable in history and no effort is being spared in Appleton to make it stand out because of its high tribute to the dead. The sentiment in Appleton and in the United States is expressed in a letter from Franklin D. Roosevelt, acting secretary of the navy, to the editor of The Stars and Stripes, Washington, D. C. He makes the following statement:

Roosevelt's Statement

"I hasten to assure you of my whole-hearted approval of your suggestion. The uniform, standing as it has for time immemorial for patriotism, fidelity and devotion, cannot properly be displaced by any badge or insignia whatsoever, and I feel sure that the wearing of the uniform on this great national day by the many thousands of those who fought by the side of their departed comrades will not only be a most appropriate mark of respect and commemoration to those who have gone to their last resting place, but will inspire in all the very highest spirit of love of country and a firm resolve that those who have laid down their lives in defense thereof shall not have done so in vain."

Shorter Services

Plans are under way for shortening the program at Riverside cemetery on Memorial day. It is proposed to break ranks for the first time, the members of the G. A. R. going directly to their plot, the C. A. R. to the Spanish-American war veterans going to theirs and members of the American Legion and Rainbow division going down to the river and scattering flowers on the water in memory of deceased sailors. In this way the three services could be conducted at the same time.

PAPERMILL WORKER MISSING FOR WEEK

FEAR DEPERE MAN EMPLOYED IN COMBINED LOCKS MILL WAS DROWNED IN FOX RIVER

George Chmela of West DePere, who has been employed in the beater room of the Combined Locks paper mill for over a year, has been missing for a week and fears are entertained that he was drowned. His wife reported his disappearance to Richard McCarthy, chief of police of Kaukauna, who took the matter up with the district attorney's office Tuesday.

Chmela left his home for DePere Sunday, May 9, and "punched in" at the mill for the last time Thursday, May 13, but did not "punch out." No one has seen him since either at the mill, at his boarding place, or at his home town.

Steps to recover the body, if it is in the river, will be taken at once. Mr. Chmela's family consists of his wife and six children, the oldest of whom is fifteen years.

500 WILL TAKE PART IN KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM

Approximately five hundred kindergarten pupils will take part in the program to be presented at Lawrence Memorial chapel Friday evening, May 18. Every public school kindergarten in the city will be represented. Separate numbers will be staged by each school.

The children will be in costume. The program will include singing, dancing and rhythm numbers.

BEHNKE AND JENSS TEAM TO PLAY AT CHILTON

The Behnke and Jenss baseball team will play the Chilton city nine Sunday afternoon at Chilton. Niles will be in the pitcher's box and expected to have no trouble in downing the Chilton county aggregation.

The Behnke and Jenss managers challenge any team in Appleton or the Fox River valley. It is planned to play the Appleton city team at the close of the season.

C. L. Wiegman returned this morning from a business trip to Chicago.

Miss Beatrice Baker of Oshkosh, visited friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. M. H. Small and Mrs. F. R. Clow of Oshkosh, visited here Tuesday.

Attorneys F. J. Rooney and F. W. Grogan were at Oshkosh today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abendroth have returned from a trip to Milwaukee and Chicago.

Mrs. Rella Wolcott and Miss Ruth Wolcott of Madison are visiting Appleton friends.

Miss Gertrude Schmitzkewitz has resigned her position as bookkeeper at the Standard Manufacturing Company. She will leave this evening for Minneapolis, accompanied by Miss Blanche Snyder.

John Pierre, an ex-service man, is reported to be seriously ill at his home, 784 Superior street.

Miss Clara Voet has resigned her position at the Geenen store and has left for Chicago where she expects to reside.

The movement along this line is not confined entirely to Appleton but is to be carried out by the American Legion all through the nation. It is thought that the higher motives of loyalty to country and appreciation of liberty and the American government will lift the people out of the realm of discontent and help restore happiness and peace.

The 1920 Memorial day will be the first at which all the boys are back home from overseas, as last year the 32nd Division and others were still absent at the time of observance. It is therefore looked forward to as the most memorable in history and no effort is being spared in Appleton to make it stand out because of its high tribute to the dead. The sentiment in Appleton and in the United States is expressed in a letter from Franklin D. Roosevelt, acting secretary of the navy, to the editor of The Stars and Stripes, Washington, D. C. He makes the following statement:

Roosevelt's Statement

"I hasten to assure you of my whole-hearted approval of your suggestion. The uniform, standing as it has for time immemorial for patriotism, fidelity and devotion, cannot properly be displaced by any badge or insignia whatsoever, and I feel sure that the wearing of the uniform on this great national day by the many thousands of those who fought by the side of their departed comrades will not only be a most appropriate mark of respect and commemoration to those who have gone to their last resting place, but will inspire in all the very highest spirit of love of country and a firm resolve that those who have laid down their lives in defense thereof shall not have done so in vain."

Shorter Services

Plans are under way for shortening the program at Riverside cemetery on Memorial day. It is proposed to break ranks for the first time, the members of the G. A. R. going directly to their plot, the C. A. R. to the Spanish-American war veterans going to theirs and members of the American Legion and Rainbow division going down to the river and scattering flowers on the water in memory of deceased sailors. In this way the three services could be conducted at the same time.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYERS READY FOR TONIGHT

The class play "The Girl" will be presented by high school seniors at Appleton Theatre tonight. Rehearsals have been held daily for the last three weeks under the direction of Miss Rose Ellen McNevin of the expression department.

A capacity audience will attend the performance. More tickets than there are seats in the play house have been sold. All the reserved seats were taken an hour after the sale opened Monday morning.

"The Girl" is a comedy drama in four acts. Part of the play is laid in Mexico. The action of the play hinges around Ysobel Ryder, played by Sylvia Bondt, and David Lansing, correspondent of a New York daily, played by Harry Ahlquist.

PERMIT TO BUILD DAM GIVEN POWER COMPANY

Permit to build a power dam on the Little Wolf river in Waupaca county has been granted to the Little Wolf Power company by the Wisconsin railroad commission. This company, organized some time ago, proposed to establish a power plant and transmit electrical energy to New London which now has a municipally owned plant. It is said the company is composed largely of New London men.

Mrs. I. D. Segal is confined to her home by illness.

GAME CLUB DRIVE STILL IN PROGRESS

With between 500 and 600 members on its books, the Outagamie Fish and Game Protective Association is continuing its campaign to make the association the largest in the state. Both Manitowish and Ashland county associations are larger than the local organization now.

Nearly fifty members were added so far this week. The campaign will be continued until 1,000 are enrolled.

Preparations are already being made for the registered prize shoot here in September. Inquiries have been received from trapshooters in half a dozen states, indicating that many crack shots will be in attendance.

Equip Your Smaller Car With Goodyear Tires

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3, 30x3 1/2, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the smaller Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these smaller Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of approximately 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of the smaller cars.

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30x3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3 1/2 size in waterproof bag $4.50

In a kitchen which is not much larger than the kitchen in an ordinary home, where from 15 to 25 meals are prepared. The bakery is also in that kitchen. Electrically driven appliances are used wherever possible in order to decrease the labor, but the room is so small that the cooks and maids are always in each others' way. These 450 meals are served from two tiny serving rooms, each eight feet wide and 12 feet long, on the first and second floors. In those tiny serving rooms must be stored individual trays and dishes for all the patients. The walls are lined with shelves to the ceiling and still there isn't enough room for all the dishes, but the sisters squirm about in those tiny compartments and manage to have the meals served on schedule time.

Chart Room Crowded.
Adjoining each of the serving rooms are the "chart rooms," where records of the patients are filed. These rooms are so small that it is impossible to install suitable filing cabinets and the charts are piled up on tables and must be rummaged through hundreds of times daily in order to find the proper record. This system will have to be continued until more facilities are provided because there isn't another room in the building that can be used for that purpose.

Fine Operating Rooms.
The operating rooms are unusually well equipped and well lighted and would be adequate if larger. Quarters are so cramped, however, that no provisions can be made for keeping instruments owned by surgeons. There are instrument cabinets for only four men and the others stack up their surgical paraphernalia in the best they can. When larger quarters are provided every physician working regularly in the institution will have his own instrument case.

The X-ray room, adjoining the operating room, is small, but well equipped. This room is on the third floor, but the dark room, where the X-ray plates are developed, is in the basement, where a two by four nook was stolen from the bread store room. Doctors are obliged to walk about one and one-half blocks from the X-ray room to the dark room and return in order to develop a picture.

Tiny Laundry.
More than 8,000 pieces of linen are washed weekly in the hospital laundry, which is very poorly equipped and much too small. The linen is ironed and pressed in the basement hall because no room can be given to the work in any of the rooms. Much of the linen is stored in cabinets placed in halls, sisters' compartments and even in the operating room. There is no other place for it.

Two men employed by the sisters to work the farm in connection with the hospital have two small rooms, a sleeping room and dining room, in the basement. The sewing room is in the basement and is less than 12 feet square. Five sewing machines are in that room.

Every bit of space in the basement is used for storing supplies, of which the hospital purchases large quantities at a time in order to get the best bargains. Boxes, cartons and barrels are piled up in the halls. The tiny storerooms are filled to overflowing but everything is carefully kept and there is no waste. The refrigerator is hardly half large enough, but the sisters smile and hope for better conditions in the future.

APPLETON DAIRY BOARD ABANDONED AFTER 35 YEARS

VETERAN CHEESE ORGANIZATION PASSES OUT OF EXISTENCE—HAD INTERESTING HISTORY

The Appleton Board of Trade which had been in continuous operation for thirty-five years and which during that time had handled millions of dollars' worth of cheese and was one of the most influential boards in the state passed out of existence Wednesday.

It was organized in the old opera house which was located where the First National Bank building now stands by Dr. Emil Erb and M. H. Brill. The board started out with ten factories and Dr. Erb was elected president and Mr. Brill secretary. Each held their respective office until their death. John A. Brill has been secretary for the last 25 years.

Had Competition
At the time the local board was organized there was only one other in the county and that was at Hortonville. Others were soon organized at

Dance at "Princess Hall," Hampel's Corners, Wednesday, May 19. Stecker Bros. Orchestra. E. C. Hickethan, Prop. Free refreshments will be served.

Seymour and New London, but the three of them passed out of existence several years ago. From a beginning of ten factories the board gradually increased its business until it sold the output of thirty factories.

Began to Lose Out
The board first began to lose ground in 1916 when many farmers began shipping their cream. About that time also contractors began buying up the entire output of certain factories. Later the Wisconsin Cheese Federation took away a portion of the business and condenseries likewise cut into it.

In 1917 only ten factories were represented on the board. In 1918 the number decreased to seven and in 1919 to three. This year only two factories were represented and at the time it disbanded there was only one, the Elm Grove factory.

Seven Cent Cheese
The lowest price at which cheese was ever sold on the board was seven cents in 1900 and the highest price it ever brought was 27 1/4 cents in 1919. The greatest number of boxes of cheese sold any one year was 36,751 in 1911, when the sales were, Twins, 25,634; cheddars, 824; double daisies, 172; daisies, 90; brick, 29 cases. The average price was 14 cents a pound. The sales in 1900 were: Cheddars, 3,201; daisies, 1,524; twins, 6,565; total, 11,481. The average price was 9 cents.

In its most successful days from twelve to fifteen buyers attended each meeting and the bidding at times was very exciting. W. H. Dean, who was a heavy dealer in cheese a quarter of a century ago, was the buyer who usually sent the price skyward.

The Ladies' Society of St. John's church, West College Ave., will hold an apron sale Thursday afternoon and evening in the basement of the church. Refreshments will also be served. Everyone is invited. 5-18-19

NEENAH WELCOMES W. AND N. RAILWAY

NEENAH CIVIC ASSOCIATION PROMISES ALL POSSIBLE SUPPORT TO THE ENTERPRISE

Neenah welcomes the Wisconsin and Northern railroad's entrance with open arms. This sentiment was expressed at a meeting of the Neenah Civic Association Monday evening.

Charles C. Nelson, general auditor of the railway, was a guest of the association and was asked to tell something of what the road will mean to Neenah. He outlined the plans for the proposed extension and told about the accomplishments since connection was established with Appleton. What it would do for the manufacturers of the Fox River valley, especially those in the timber and wood-working lines, was referred to by Mr. Nelson, who also described the vast timber resources which the railway taps now. He assured them that what it had done for Appleton in a manufacturing way would also be accomplished in Neenah.

A resolution was adopted by the association following Mr. Nelson's address placing it on record as highly in favor of the entrance of the Wisconsin and Northern railroad into Neenah and Menasha, and promising every possible support in bringing it there.

HANDSHAKE ENDS THREATENED ROW IN EQUITY MEET

At his feet was a beautiful, flowing, bluish river. Angels were there. Men were crossing into the gates of Paradise.

What Wisconsin Did
The farmers of Wisconsin helped to keep up the flag of the United States Wisconsin farmers raised wheat, the wheat that kept England and France from recognizing the south, and enabled the north to quell the uprising in 1861. Tittmore said.

"The farmer needs to be more independent. Free men must think independently. There are just as many lies in the poor man's paper as there is in the rich man's paper. And don't you believe there isn't."

"Men complained of the service of the New York Central Railroad. And Vanderbilt said, smoking a cigar the meanwhile, 'The public be damned.' And the public was damned."

Can't Unscramble Eggs
"The supreme court tried to unscramble the steel trust, tried to unscramble an egg. They found out it was a pretty good egg—they found out five weeks ago it was a very good egg. Did you ever try to unscramble an egg? Mix the white with the yolk, and then unscramble it?"

The business plan of the equity is like the organization of the steel trust, Tittmore said. Tittmore declared that he knew all about the big workings, that he had been in meetings with Morgan and Harriman. We may have differences of opinion, but afterwards we should meet as men and not as animals.

You are stewards of Almighty God. Your souls are entrusted with the soft you fill. This society, a successor to the grange, is teaching co-ordination without which you lose in the race of life."

Wants U. S. Owned Rails
"I am for government ownership of railroads," Tittmore said. "The railroads should be run by and for the people."

"I am against one feature of the Plumb plan of ownership of railroads which would give the farmers only about two members on the managing board."

ANOTHER COUNTY DIVISION SCHEME REARS ITS HEAD

PROPOSAL TO TAKE TWO TOWNSHIPS FROM OUTAGAMIE COUNTY RECEIVES SERIOUS CONSIDERATION.

Agitation for the formation of a new county which would include two Outagamie townships is rapidly assuming shape in Clintonville and New London, according to information from those two cities. Reports indicate that promoters of the scheme are preparing to present their case to the state legislature at the next regular session.

It is only a few years ago that Outagamie county was involved in another county division scheme which for a long time threatened to be successful. It was then proposed to top off parts of Outagamie and Shawano counties to make the new county.

The present scheme, however, goes further than that. The plan is to include in the new county the cities of New London and Clintonville, the towns of Lebanon, Bear Creek, Larabee, Union, Dupont and Matteson of Waupaca county; Maple Creek and Deer Creek of Outagamie county; Pella, Grant and Hermann of Shawano county.

It is agreed that the territory selected is neglected in everything except the collection of taxes and that the taxpayers are finding this condition irksome. Clintonville people assert they are paying one-sixth of the taxes in Waupaca county and are getting nothing in return.

It is said the territory proposed for the new county is compact, rich and able to maintain a new organization.

RECOVERING—The six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stewart, Seymour, who was reported to have died after she was struck by an automobile driven by Fred Wichman, is recovering rapidly. Several physicians are said to have abandoned hope for the girl after the accident, giving rise to the report that she had died.

Herman Abitz, president of the Badger local, presided at the meeting which lasted until 11:30 o'clock.

BALLARD CANDIDATE ON COMMITTEE OF 48 BALLOT

C. B. Ballard, Grand Chute, is a candidate for election as a member of the permanent executive committee of the Committee of 48, which is taking an active part in politics. Rex L. McCreery, Green Bay, has also been selected as a candidate.

A. J. Sweet, Milwaukee, secretary of the Committee of 48, is distributing notices to the members for the election of a permanent executive committee to act during the campaign. To fill the places, the temporary committee has selected 19 nominees who will be voted on under the proportional representation scheme. This will assure both majority election and minority representation.

Any 11 members may nominate others through petition to state headquarters. Election ballots will be mailed not later than May 27 and votes will be counted June 3. The new executive committee will organize June 5.

At 33rd-st and 6th avenue, New York, there are six levels of railroad.

GAME LAWS—The Wisconsin Conservation Commission will hold a convention in Appleton at 3 p. m., Wednesday, May 26, at which time the question of giving greater protection to deer, mink and muskrat will be considered.

THE HOSPITAL DRIVE

Organization preliminary to the drive for $200,000 to be added to the $300,000 now on hand for the erection of a modern St. Elizabeth hospital shows it will be a real campaign to produce real results. The personnel of the committees in charge of the various activities connected with the drive insures its success. It is composed of men who work with a will when they undertake a good cause, and they are all justly enthusiastic in the use of St. Elizabeth hospital.

When men who take the leadership in movement of a public character are heartily in sympathy with it, and give it their best effort, it is a pretty sure sign that the public is of the same mind and can be depended upon to give its support. We do not believe there is a citizen of Appleton who does not realize the urgent necessity for a large modern hospital, and who will not take pride in seeing it provided.

A half million dollar building will equip Appleton with superior hospital accommodations. It will make them the equal of any city in Wisconsin, considering quality and adequacy. It will be looked to the future as well as taking care of the present, and every project which is to serve the public should measure up to that standard. As a civic asset the proposed hospital will take rank with our schools and our churches, and it will be worthy of Appleton's aspirations in all these fields.

Every citizen ought to help build this hospital according to his ability. It is for the common benefit of all, and it will be ready to serve all when its services are required. The drive starts next Tuesday, and the fund is to be raised in two days. That is the Appleton way, and we know it will be done.

AN OBJECT LESSON TO THE WORLD

The indications are that Red Russia is about to turn to a more stable color. The country has been brought to such a state of chaos and want by the economic and social experiment of Lenin that it has about reached the limit of endurance. The best information that Washington is able to secure is to the effect that bolshevism is on the verge of collapse.

Russia is suffering from conditions which fanaticism cannot cure. The peasants are producing nothing beyond their immediate needs, and there is neither credit nor money with which to import the necessities of living. It is said that the peasants have almost as a body repudiated Lenin and that because of their attitude the land is doing nothing to take care of the requirements of the people aside from those who occupy it. It was a part of Lenin's program to put the peasants upon the land under the condition that the state should receive its products. The result is that there have been no products, with the consequence that the food scarcity is now reported to approximate famine conditions. All efforts to stir up production have been futile for the obvious reason that the fruit of production goes to the state for the benefit of drones as well as workers.

The communist bubble is picturesque to look upon when first blown, but as it swells in its proportion and nears the bursting point it is not so pleasing a picture. Emma Goldman has found it so, and she has an artist's eye for the fine points of communism. When bolshevism has spent itself in Russia it will be less of a commodity in the world market. It is all right to speculate upon stirring human endeavors and aspirations into a common pot for a common existence, but unfortunately for the progress of the world as moved by this appeal have been the ones who could not or would not make a living for themselves and preferred to live off the effort of others. In America the man who owns his own home, or who is acquiring one—the man who is making individual progress and building for the future of his family—is not carried away with the dream of doing it for his indolent and shiftless neighbor. And in America this element is not only in the vast majority, but is the backbone of everything which makes for the solidity and welfare of the country at large. That is why bolshevism merely scratches the surface. Take away individual initiative and individual opportunity and the United States would flatten into a spineless, decaying nation.

Russia will in time recover from the destructive forces now boring from within, and when it has done so it will become an object lesson to the world of the utter futility of a doctrine which seeks to wipe out and negative every normal instinct of the human race.

SHIPPING BY TRUCK

This week has been set aside nationally as a week for the universal promotion of the "ship-by-truck-for-short-hauls" idea, and it is well worth while to direct the attention of the country to this movement. With transportation in a state of collapse and the railroads entirely unable to perform their functions as common carriers commensurate with the needs of the country, the entrance of the truck into the field of inter-city traffic is a welcome and significant development.

The truck has a just claim to short haul traffic. Perhaps in time it will lay claim to long haul business and be able to sustain it. But just now its activities are confined to what may be termed local territory. In point of convenience it exceeds any other method of transportation, for it receives its freight at the place of shipment and discharges it at the door of the consignee. It covers its route in a few hours, guaranteeing delivery the same day. It is economical, for it can operate at less expense than either railroads or electric lines, considering capital invested and overhead. It saves the shipper cartage and packing charges, for most of the freight it carries goes uncrated. It is safe, dependable, prompt, and altogether recommends itself to shippers who desire real service.

The truck is of course peculiarly adaptable to communities with good roads, and where these exist or are being provided it will prosper and expand most rapidly. Thirty-seven states have authorized the expenditures of $635,641,729 for good roads to be built the next five years, and each year the amount will be greatly increased. Legislation now pending authorizes the issuance of bonds to the amount of $391,253,800 for good roads, and there is no doubt that most of it will be approved. Wisconsin will within the next five years spend close to $100,000,000 for improved roads, nearly all of which will be permanent highways. Outagamie county is adding its share. The effect of this advancement of permanent highways upon truck traffic is apparent. It means that truck transportation is going to become of prime importance throughout the country. Its possibilities as a common carrier are practically unlimited, and they will be increased just as rapidly as serviceable roads are provided.

Appleton is fortunate in being already the center of truck transportation. Several lines are operated out of the city and their service is coming into extensive use. The truck is the modern and efficient instrument of short-haul traffic, and it is destined to become a tremendous factor in the solution of our national as well as local transportation problems.

A GENUINE JOB

Have you a job, a genuine job,
A job that is worth your while?
Which brings you bread and a little ahead
And sends you home with a smile?
Then, if some one comes when the weather's fine
And the suckers are biting on every line,
And he wants you to sit stock in his mine—
Whoa!
Go slow, my boy, go slow!
It is true that gold has a grateful glow,
But why not consider the job you know?
(Per contra, I might write a couple of odes
To make you think you're a Cecil Rhodes.)
Have you a job, a genuine job,
A job that you know clean through,
Which serves some need of the human breed
As well as a job may do?
Then, if some one comes, rubbing hand on hand,
And says he admires your sense and sand
And he'd like to engage you to lead his band—
Whoa!
Go slow, my boy, go slow!
A shako and baton make some show,

AUTOBIOGRAPHY — 20

The reason why I needed no physic was because father had seen so much harm done babies by physics that he wouldn't let any one give me the first dose of physic, and if a baby doesn't take his first dose he never gets the habit.

There are occasions, father says, when a cathartic, even a dose of castor oil, is necessary; but in the great majority of cases physics are administered to babies needlessly and without medical sanction. Contrary to the notions of old grannies and some practical nurses, there is never any harm done by waiting forty-eight hours for a bowel movement before interfering with nature's plans. Father often remarks that if the busy-bodies and the unenlightened mothers could realize that fact, babies would suffer far less from the injuries done them by all kinds of physics and constipation would be far less common than it is.

I do not mean to boast, for I am only a normal baby. But I'm glad I've never got into the physic habit. It's expensive, for one thing. Even at a penny a dose, and a dose or two a day, that amount of money, if banked instead of squandered, would become a fortune at compound interest by the time a baby had grown up. The physic habit robs a fellow not only of his fortune, but also of his health.

A baby nursed at the breast naturally has several bowel movements daily. Of course this may be easily upset or prevented by simply dopping the child with some guaranteed harmless physic every little while in his earlier weeks, at the behest of some visiting fairy.

A bottle fed baby is likely to have less frequent movements. If the food is inadequate the baby is likely to be quite constipated—most babies fed with condensed milk are constipated because they do not get enough fat in the food, fat being one natural laxative food, and fat being almost entirely lacking from condensed milk as well as from almost all of the proprietary substitutes for a baby's proper food.

The addition of fresh fruit juices (raw) to the diet of a bottle fed baby at the third month, and the addition of well cooked and strained fresh vegetable pulps (all kinds of fresh vegetables) at the fifth or sixth month; and the addition of stewed fruit pulps (such as apple sauce, prunes, peaches or any other fruit pulp without the seeds or skins or fibres) at the sixth month, will prevent constipation, provided the baby receives an ample daily quantity of fresh milk or top-milk (milk fat).

Oatmeal water, added to the milk, from the first month or two, tends to keep the bowels active. Any cereal gruel, cooked two hours, or oatmeal gruel cooked three hours, has a mild laxative influence in the diet of a baby ten to twelve months old.

It is exceedingly harmful to feed a young baby such crudities as castor oil and the like frequently.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Complexion Piffle

Will sweat improve the complexion and make the skin softer and whiter? (Miss J. K.)

ANSWER—No more so than bread and butter or potatoes and gravy.

More Grandmotherly

I am a girl 18 year old. When I was 14 I suffered an attack of acute multiple arthritis, or "rheumatic fever" or "inflammatory rheumatism" as it was called then. Following the attack I developed a heart valve leakage, which is permanent. Now grandma and mother both insist I should take all my recreation sitting on a chair, but that seems pretty tedious. They warn me I am likely to drop dead if I exercise any. Am I doomed to be a lounge lizard? (C. J.)

ANSWER—Tell grandma and mother to tell it to Sweeney. Persons with valvular heart disease seldom succumb to heart disease. It may be that properly graded exercises are precisely what your heart requires—but, the only human being who can determine whether and how much exercise a given subject of valvular defect should have is the patient's own physician.

Accout on the 'ell

Is skimmed milk which you prescribe in the Karell regimen to be skimmed by hand? (Mrs. V. A. T.)

ANSWER—Skimmed milk is milk from which all or nearly all the cream has been carefully skimmed off—but don't use your hand for this. This refers to cows' milk. Milkmen's milk comes in bottles. Cream from bottles may be removed by means of a small dipper (Chapin dipper) which goes into the bottle.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Wednesday, May 22, 1895

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Vaughn of Greenville.

Announcement was made of the marriage of Miss Viola Whorton and C. W. Beach which took place at Menasha on May 1.

W. L. Rohrer had returned from Menominee, where he had temporarily been in charge of the express office in that city.

William Imbusch, the well known Milwaukee tenor, had been engaged for the saengerfest concert, June 15.

William Hess, ex-mayor of Neenah, had bought the farm of Joshua Kurtz in the town of Neenah, the consideration being $10,500. Mr. Kurtz was to remove to Appleton.

The department reunion of the Wisconsin Grand Army of the Republic began its session at Green Bay. Appleton was represented by fifty members.

The marriage of Miss Sue Wilson and Nelson E. Funk of Elkhart, Ind., occurred at the home of the bride's mother at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

A farmers' institute was to be held at the Hortonville fair grounds, June 12. The principal speaker was to be Hon. ex-Governor W. D. Hoard.

Arrangements were being made for a joint Fourth of July celebration between the Appleton Light Infantry and the Driving Park and Fair association.

The venerable John Bateman was contemplating a trip to the region of his old home near Plattsburg, New York.

Fresh creamery butter was selling at twenty cents per pound.

But why not stick to the job you know?

(I could write a poem, on the other hand, To prove your job is to lead the band.)

Have you a job, a genuine job,
Into which you have built your years,
Till its blood and bone are yours very own,
Foundationed on hopes and fears?

Then, if some one comes, and proclaims that Fate
Has arranged that a guy of your size and weight
Is to handle the wheel of the Ship of State,
Whoa!

Go slow, my boy, go slow!
The Ship of State may survive the blow
If you stick to your little old craft and row!

(However, of course, it would still be true
That Lincoln had no such start as you.)

Confessions of a Bride

THE BOOK OF ANN Chrys and I Can See Through All of Ann's Silly Shams

Some things stick in my mind, not because I want them there, but because they have made a deeper impression on my gray matter than better things have done. I would like to see and remember nothing but the ugliness which I particularly do not want to remember often makes a deeper impression than some delicate piece of art or a bit of poetry which I would like not to forget.

I do not like to see only the flaws in Ann's character, nevertheless they are too conspicuous to overlook.

Her laziness is a naive expression of her real self. She doesn't even consider it a fault! She has never lived in a well ordered house, I suppose.

But she "has gone to college." She is fond of repeating that. She graduated from a business school and held some kind of an office position. It is plain that she has a mind which can be trained. And it seems a pity that her mother hasn't trained her to keep her stockings off from the floor, and her corset inside instead of outside her bureau.

To know all is to forgive all, they say. It was some time before we knew much about Ann. Jim told Bob, and Bob told me, and I told Chrys, and a few things about her bringing up which explained Ann, but even so, I couldn't forgive her slovenly habits.

Her mother never had had time to train her. Her mother had been an actress and never had had a home to keep.

"And now Mrs. Best is in the movies!" Bob ended his apology for Ann with this stunning blow.

"Jim will soon get her out of that profession!" said I.

"No he will not! Lately she was dependent a long time owing to some illness. Now she insists that she is going to support herself as many years as she can!"

"The worst predicament the Lorimers were ever in!" I exclaimed. "Imagine the woman whom our Jim must call 'mother' jumping around at the order of a movie director. It's unthinkable! It's so undignified! Mrs. Best can't expect to go on—with the Lorimer wealth behind her son-in-law!" I gasped.

"The results of her 'jumping around' are quite dignified, my dear. You've seen Mrs. Best as the gracious mother of the rich film hero many a time. She makes quite a charming dowager in English scenes, but she is most in demand as the devoted maternal relative of ex-convicts!"

I suppose all this accounts for Ann's not knowing how to keep her room tidy, and for her indifference to a daily bath; also for her uncanny knowledge of the best route to buy and how to apply it so that Jim and Bob and Daddy can't detect it.

But Chrys and I can! We can see through all of her silly shams. The affections are not important, but the fact that Chrys and I see them—that is important—one of the wedges which will rend the happy tribe of Lorimer some day.

Ann was so obsessed with her success with the boys and daddy that she didn't perceive how completely she had failed with us women. This was another important mistake, but she couldn't understand it, because in her scheme of life every woman is for herself as against all other women. Only men count with girls like Ann.

The theory may bring happiness to young women, but I can't help wondering what's to become of all the girls like Ann when they grow old, when men count their wrinkles—if they see them at all.

I couldn't picture Ann as old and faded. I couldn't picture myself that way. I had always seen myself, at 70, as a gracious white-haired beauty, something like a Watteau grande dame, surrounded by lovely grandchildren.

There was a point which hurt. One couldn't have grandchildren unless one had a son or a daughter!

What if Ann provided the Lorimers with an heir before I did?

G.O.P. Convention Snap-Shots

The Story of 16 Nominations

By A. H. VANDENBERG

Second Convention

The second Republican National Convention met at Chicago May 18, 1860, in the famous "wigwam" specially erected for the occasion and with accommodations for 10,000 people. Delegates attended from all the free-soil states and from the six slave states of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri and Texas.

The temporary chairman was David Wilmont—author of the famous "Wilmont Proviso" and formerly an anti-slavery Democrat. The permanent chairman was George Ashmun of Massachusetts.

Seward was the leading Presidential candidate when the Convention assembled, and to him was attached an earnest, affectionate following. His only formidable rival was Lincoln, whose debates with Douglas in 1858 had built him into tremendous challenge.

"Favorite sons" first put in their appearance at this convention: Simon Cameron from Pennsylvania, Edward Bates from Missouri, Salmon P. Chase from Ohio, William L. Dayton from New Jersey (nominated for Vice President four years previously) and Jacob Collamer from Vermont. Together they represented 140 votes—an uncertain but determining Convention factor.

On the first ballot, Seward led handsomely. On the second, Pennsylvania helped Lincoln close the gap. On the third, Lincoln was within 1½ votes of nomination; and ere the totals were formally announced, Ohio swung over to him the necessary votes from Chase to designate the Great Emancipator to his immortal task. Two ballots nominated Hannibal Hamlin of Maine for Vice President.

The platform inveighed bitterly against disunion—thanks to an amendment to the Resolutions Committee report forced by Joshua R. Giddings and George William Curtis of New York; denied that the Constitution automatically carried slavery into all states or into any territories; declared for a free-soil; renewed appeal for a Pacific railroad; and enunciated the doctrine of tariff protection.

One of the interesting figures in this convention was Horace Greeley, famous editor of the New York Tribune who—though therefore a boon political partner of Seward's—appeared in the Convention amid Seward's opposition. Unable to obtain a seat from New York, he went to Chicago as a delegate from Oregon—into all states or into any territories; declared for a free-soil; renewed appeal for a Pacific railroad; and enunciated the doctrine of tariff protection.

BIG CROWD APPLAUDS CLUB CHORUS CONCERT

SPLENDID PROGRAM IS PRESENTED AT LAWRENCE CHAPEL UNDER WOMAN'S CLUB AUSPICES

The Woman's Club Chorus of Appleton presented its annual concert last night at the Lawrence Memorial chapel to a large and appreciative audience. The concert was given under the auspices of the Appleton Woman's club which is to share in the proceeds. The club members had worked earnestly to bring a record audience to the concert, and the well filled chapel showed the success of their efforts.

The concert presented was the cantata, "Pan, On a Summer's Day." Its beautiful theme and melody pleased the audience. The chorus is composed of thirty-two voices and their splendid training under the direction of Dean F. V. Evans showed in the quality and smoothness of the presentation.

The cantata itself is in two parts, beginning with the first glint of dawn and closing with the rising of the full moon of a summer night. During the interlude two separate numbers were presented. An instrumental trio, composed of Nettie Steinger, Fullinwider, pianist, Carl Beglinger, cellist, and Percy Fullinwider, violinist, presented "A LaBion Amie" by Schutte, and "Kamennot-Ostrow" by Rubenstein. A voice trio composed of Maude Harwood, soprano, Mrs. E. E. Dunn, mezzo, and Mrs. Elizabeth Leuchers, alto, sang "The Earth is Decked in Beauty."

$500,000 St. Elizabeth Hospital Campaign Starts

Tuesday, May 25th

$300,000 Already Pledged--Effort Will Be Made To Raise Entire Balance In Two Days

The paramount need of this community at the present time seems to be the addition of a new hospital capable of taking care of present and future hospital requirements.

Such a hospital will be made possible through the $500,000.00 campaign for a new St. Elizabeth's hospital to be located in the city of Appleton near the present site of that institution. This Campaign will start Tuesday, May 25th and end Saturday, May 29th, although a special effort will be made to raise the entire amount in two days.

Already $300,000.00 of the $500,000.00 has been raised through pledges of $200,000.00 made by the Franciscan Sisters and pledges of $100,000.00 made by the manufacturers of the Fox River Valley. The campaign for $200,000.00 will be made for popular subscriptions from each and every public spirited citizen of this community.

THE NEW ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL

will contain 200 beds as compared with the 50 bed hospital originally built but which of late years, through extreme congestion, has been increased to 80 beds. This increase necessitated placing beds in corridors, alcoves, etc., and increasing number of beds in rooms from 1, to in many instances 4, and in spite of this extreme effort to take care of local hospital needs, it is necessary to turn patients away almost daily.

The new plans contemplate the use of the present structure as a Maternity Hospital, thus filling another imperative need.

A WORD ABOUT ST. ELIZABETH OF THE PAST

The present St. Elizabeth hospital was built nineteen years ago and since its existence, has given free or charitable service to the extent of $93,758.00 computed on a nominal charge basis. During this time 15,512 patients have been treated. The cost of the present institution with equipment, improvements, repairs, etc., amounts to $123,704.00 of which only $8,734 has come from public gifts and donations. The public has never been called upon for the maintenance of St. Elizabeth's, but the time has arrived when this community must have a new and larger hospital, one which will be in keeping with Appleton's present day and future needs and there can be no worthier appeal made at this time than for liberal financial support to this movement. It is a humanitarian, charitable cause which will commend itself to every individual. Plan now to lend your utmost financial assistance when the solicitor calls.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT HOLDS LAST MEETING

EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO PRO-VIDE OUTINGS FOR MIL-WAUKEE CHILDREN—
NAME DELEGATES

The Public Health department of the Appleton Woman's Club held its last regular meeting for the club year at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday afternoon. Reports were made by officers and standing committees. The annual report of the milk committee was deferred until the close of the school year.

Miss Irma Pynn of the Central Council of Social Agencies, Milwaukee, talked on behalf of the summer outing department for Milwaukee's undernourished children. She spoke of the great need of the children and the fact that last summer three hundred such children failed to get their summer outing because there were no families to which they could be sent. After a conference with Miss Pynn the health department decided to assume charge of the work here. Mrs. H. E. Nicholson, Mrs. N. P. Mills and Mrs. S. C. Rosebush were appointed to take the matter in charge. Specific announcements will be made later.

It was voted to suggest to school executives that space be provided on monthly report cards of pupils for recording weight and height.

Mr. Paul Mackbert was appointed a delegate to the district federation convention to be held at DePere next week and instructed to give special attention to health conferences and return reports to the department.

Mrs. George R. Wetengel, chairman, was appointed delegate to the national convention of the Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Association to be held at Madison early in June. This is the first time this gathering has been held in the west and it offers an unusual opportunity to affiliated clubs.

FREIGHT SITUATION IN MILWAUKEE IS ACUTE

Milwaukee.—The Milwaukee Association of Commerce was on record today as favoring increased freight rates for railroads and emergency traffic control by the interstate commerce commission as a solution of the present transportation crisis.

Resolutions to this effect endorsing the request of railroad executives made in Washington, were adopted by the board of directors of the association.

Application of priority rules as a measure relieving freight congestion was also favored. The situation here is so serious that war-time freight restrictions, limitations, shipments, to food, fuel and newspaper paper are expected for Milwaukee before the end of the week.

STATE INSPECTOR FINDS UNREST IN HOSPITALS

Grand Rapids, Wis.—Speaking before the hospital board of this city, Miss Myra Kimball, inspector for the State Nursing association, said that there is a general unrest in Wisconsin hospitals, caused both by the shortage of nurses and the great national unrest. That many nurses who were called to government service during the war have stayed in that service is Miss Kimball's reason for the lack of nurses in private institutions like the local Riverview hospital. The inspector was especially pleased, she told the board, with the location of the building, which looks out over the Wisconsin river, on the outskirts of Grand Rapids. The hospital has recently acquired a new superintendent, Miss Minnie Bea, formerly in the Red Cross service at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Brunswick Principles In Fine Tire Making

The reason you are interested in the name on your tire is that it identifies the maker. By knowing the maker you can judge his ideals of manufacture.

The only secret of a super-tire lies in the principles of the maker. His standards decide the quality. For there are no secrets in the tire industry.

What you get depends on what is behind the name on your tire. Brunswick, as you know, means a very old concern, jealous of its good name. Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has been famous the world over for the quality of its products.

The Brunswick Tire is all that you expect—and more. Your first one will be a revelation. You'll agree that you've never known a better. And you'll tell your friends. So spreads the news among motorists. The Brunswick is the most welcome tire that ever came to market.

NINTH REGIMENT BAND PLAYS
SPLendid PROGRAM—SO-PRANO TO BE SO-LOIST.

One of the finest programs ever attempted by a Wisconsin band will be presented at Lawrence Memorial Chapel next Monday evening, when the Ninth Regiment band gives its final concert of the season. A large number of the selections were picked by persons who attended the last concert.

The soloist will be Miss Mary Camp Twyman, a coloratura soprano who has made a fine impression in Chicago. Miss Twyman is an artist student of Carl E. Craven, noted tenor, who was the soloist at one of the earlier concerts.

Another feature will be "The Evolution of Yankee Doodle," a selection by the band in which the history of America is traced by music. It is said to be one of the most impressive things ever written for a band.

PAIR OF ACES WINS BIG BASEBALL POT

MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS WITH DUO OF STOR HURLERS
SOMEHOW MANAGE TO GET INTO THE MONEY

(By Henry L. Farrell)
By United Press Licensed Wire

New York—Two aces may be small fry around the table but a pair draws high in the baseball pot.

Kid Gleason had a pair last year in Eddie Cicotte and Claude Williams that pitched the White Sox into $78,000 pot.

This Speaker had a pair in Stan Coveleskie and Jim Bagby that hurled the Cleveland Indians into a pot of $75,000. Fred Mitchell had "two of a kind" in Grover Alexander and Jim Vaughn that were worth $12,000 to the Chicago Cubs.

Putting aces were quoted high on the 1919 market and they haven't slumped this year.

The same old cards are up to their same old tricks.

Williams and Cicotte have Gleason's hope pinned on them for another American League pennant. Coveleskie and Bagby are making Cleveland's bid for the championship look like a sure bet.

Walter Reuther and Jimmie Ring are upholding the prestige of the world's champions while Pat Moran is working the kinks out of the rest of the staff.

Alexander the Great and Vaughn are pulling the Cubs toward the top alone. Lefty Cooper and Babe Adams are working overtime for the Pirates and Leo Meadows and Eppie Hickey are the staff of the Phils.

REVENUE OFFICERS
NAE FOUR IN BELOIT

Beloit, Wis.—Four persons, all colored, were arrested in prohibition raids by revenue officers here last night. Those held are William Gordon, Janesville, and Mrs. Mary Sterling, Mrs. Caveater Jones and Herbert Jones of Beloit. They will be taken to Madison to be tried in federal court.

Gordon has a severe wound on his scalp where he was hit with the butt of a revolver when he is alleged to have resisted arrest. Detective Dan Corristi, who was aiding in the raids, was slightly injured by a blow from Gordon, the police say.

A coupe driven by E. D. Carlson and a touring car driven by Otto Sprister were badly damaged in a collision this morning at the corner of North and Oneida streets. Carlson was driving north on Oneida and crossed North street just as Sprister, who was going south on Oneida, turned to go east on North. The Carlson car was pushed to the curb and the axles were badly bent and the left fender demolished. Sprister's car suffered damages to the fenders and lights.

PRO-BRITISH VIEWS NO BAR TO CITIZENSHIP

L'Anse, Mich.—Rev. George Smith of L'Anse, Michigan, born in England, was one of the applicants for citizenship on Monday in circuit court of Baraga County Mich. He is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at L'Anse.

Dr. F. F. Marshall, commander of the American Legion Post at L'Anse and Charles H. Anderson, federal prohibition inspector appeared in court and offered testimony tending to show that Mr. Smith's views on public questions were strongly pro-British. Anderson is a member of the pastor's church and had made complaint to the bishop about Smith's utterances from the pulpit. U. S. Naturalization Examiner George N. Danielson, Appleton, Wis., appeared for the government and presented the case of the objectors.

Attorney J. J. O'Connor appeared for the minister and offered proof that Smith had applied for a position as chaplain in the U. S. Army, but was not accepted on account of being over age. Several members of the church and pastors from other cities testified for Smith.

Judge P. H. O'Brien held that although he disagreed with Mr. Smith's views on English and Irish questions, he could not hold that Smith was not attached to the principles of the U. S. constitution. The pastor then took the oath of allegiance to the United States and was admitted to citizenship.

DIVORCE ENDS TEXAS GIRLS' ROMANCE

Janesville.—A romance of the great war, commenced in a southern training camp in 1918, came to a conclusion in the court of Judge Grimm here when Helen Thoreson, 23 years old, Beloit, was granted a divorce from Harry Thoreson. The pretty Texas belle smiled when the decree was pronounced.

On the stand she told of the wooing by the soldier while he was in training near Houston and how, upon his discharge, he brought her to reside at Gateway city.

After living together for five months, she said, he told her he was dissatisfied, and did not care for her any more, packed up his things and left her.

TIMBER STRIKERS RETURN TO MILLS

OSHKOSH OFFICIALS SAY MANY LUMBER WORKERS HAVE RETURNED TO THEIR OLD JOBS

Oshkosh, Wis.—Marked improvement in the condition of the strike of timber workers was indicated by reports to O. T. Swan, secretary of the Northern Hemlock and Hardwood Manufacturers' association. He said: "The Medford Veneer Co. started work with 75 per cent of its men after two weeks' shutdown."

The Trout Creek Lumber Co., started its sawmill Monday. The Wiedman Lumber Co. of the same place opened last week. The Roddis Lumber and Veneer Co. at Park Falls, Wis., started up Monday at 85 per cent of capacity.

The Charles Hebard Lumber Co. at Pequanin, Mich., added a night crew to its force Monday. The Rhineland Box and Lumber Co. started with a two-thirds crew.

The Scott & How Lumber Co. at Ironwood, Mich., closed its plant for repairs May 3. The union claimed a strike there but Monday when the mill opened again, the company reports there was 100 per cent response of employees.

CAMPAIGN TO ABOLISH SORORITY HOUSES IS ON

Madison.—A campaign to abolish sorority and fraternity houses at the university of Wisconsin is under way among university students. At a recent meeting, attended by about seventy-five students preliminary steps were taken to bring the question before the state legislature again for action. It was charged that fraternities and sororities were a menace to the university, that snobbishness was engendered by fraternities and sororities, that they had no place in a democratic institution, and that the grade of scholarship was lower among fraternity and sorority members than among nonmembers. It is understood that further meetings will be held in the anti-fraternity campaign.

100 YEAR OLD NOTE FOUND IN DE PERE

INTERESTING DOCUMENT, YELLOW WITH AGE, IS PRESENTED TO STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

DePere, Wis.—Jacques Vian, one of the historic characters of this locality, whose life is on record at the State Historical Society, wrote a letter 100 years ago to Alexis Amable

Use the Direct Route to Michigan Points.

Use the direct route to Michigan; more comfort, less bother, lower cost. The Steamer George, newly equipped and handsomely fitted out for cross lake passenger service, now makes regular trips between Milwaukee and Muskegon. Every modern convenience for travel. Autos carried; take your family for a pleasant weekend tour.

The Steamer George leaves Crosby Docks, Milwaukee, on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays at 9 p. m. Arrives at Muskegon next morning at 6 a. m. Good train connections for Detroit, Grand Rapids and all Michigan points.

Carriple, another historical character of the Green Bay district. It has just been found by Mrs. W. H. Sempler of this city, descendant of one of the earliest pioneers of DePere, and a prominent member of the DePere Woman's club. Mrs. Sempler has presented the letter to the State Historical Society.

It was found among the mementoes left by her grandfather, Alexis Clermont, the Frenchman who carried the first mail on foot from Green Bay and Rapids des Peres (DePere) to Chicago, in the early days, and who, when he had become an aged man, duplicated the feats of his younger years at the opening of the world's fair in Chicago in 1893. Mr. Clermont was a friend of both Carriple and Vian.

The letter is yellow with age, but is still in a good state of preservation. It appears to have been folded and then sealed together with red sealing wax. No envelope was used. A translation of it follows:

"Mr. Carriple: I write you a few words to pray you to accept this bark canoe; take good care of it, and if you can sell it, let me know, but not less than ten or twelve dollars in money; otherwise take care of it as you please. The canoe belongs to 'Consineau'. He and I have arranged to winter together. I pray you that eight days after the loan received you will send me my mare by Morgan, the Indian, to bring it to Manitowish, and pray Mr. Porlier send me some ink powder or a little ink made in a bottle, and you give it to the little Indian. If you please do not forget to give him the bridge and saddle and a bell which hangs up in the Indian's attic. I pray you to give the little Indian something, either a loaf of bread or a couple of biscuits to take him to Manitowish. Nothing new, but we are all well. I wish you a happy New Year. I am your servant, 'Jacques Vian.'"

The letter was written at Red River, a point on the east shore of Green Bay, Door county.

A new concrete bridge crossing the Willamette River in Washington is notable not only for its light and graceful lines, but for the length of the span, which is 385 feet, with a rise of 120 feet.

GREEN BAY MASONS ARE STILL STRIKING

BUILDING LANGUISHES BECAUSE CONTRACTORS AND WORKERS CANNOT REACH AGREEMENT

Green Bay.—Following the refusal of masons, brick layers and plasterers of Green Bay to accept a compromise offer of $100 per hour made by members of the Brown County Contractors & Builders association, the strike of the building tradesmen in Green Bay, has now reached a critical stage and new construction requiring the efforts of men in these three crafts will be held up indefinitely.

The men were formerly receiving a minimum of $87½ per hour with the scale running the contractors say, from that figure up to $100 for good men. Following the demand on the part of the three crafts for $125 per hour the contractors say they offered to compromise at $100 but this was refused by the workmen.

In the meantime construction requiring the three crafts is at a standstill. The contractors working on the Swift plant on the West side had granted the demand, but orders came from the Chicago officers of Swift & Co. to let the men go until the strike was over.

The Brown County Contractors & Builders association held a meeting Saturday evening and decided to keep all construction down until the strikers were willing to accept the compromise offer of $100 per hour.

MUST NOT EMPLOY BOYS ON PHONE CONSTRUCTION

Industrial Commission Issues Warning That Employers of Boys Under 18 Are Liable to Arrest.

(Special to Post-Crescent.) Madison.—Telegraph and telephone companies should be careful to employ no boys under eighteen years of age in the outside erection and repair of telegraph and telephone wires, according to a statement issued today by the Industrial Commission. Such employment is prohibited to children under eighteen years of age, and if any boy under this age is injured at this work he can recover three times the usual amount of compensation. The employing company in addition is liable to prosecution for a violation of the Child Labor Law.

A very serious accident showing the necessity for care in this regard has just been reported to the Industrial Commission. This accident occurred at Viroqua, to Harold Nicks, an employee of the Wisconsin-Minnesota Light and Power Company. In this case a boy of sixteen years of age was employed in construction work, and while on top of a pole the pole broke off and he fractured both arms and also broke his skull and jaw. Recovery is reported to be doubtful.

This is the fourth accident within a few months to boys under eighteen years of age who are employed in the outside erection and repair of telephone or telegraph wires. Of the other three accidents one was fatal.

TAP MORE TREES BUT GET LESS MAPLE SAP

Madison.—The high price of sugar stimulated the maple sugar industry of Wisconsin so that more trees were tapped in Wisconsin than for many years. Joseph A. Becker of the Wisconsin crop reporting service said on Monday in his annual maple sugar report.

It is estimated that 460,000 trees were tapped in 1920, compared to 442,000 in 1919; 425,000 in 1918 and 450,000 in 1909. The season, however, was unfavorable for sap flow and the production this year was smaller than in recent years. It is estimated that 86,300 gallons of sirup and 17,000 pounds of sugar were made, compared to 98,600 gallons and 24,400 pounds last year, and 107,300 gallons and 26,500 pounds in 1918.

The total value of sirup and sugar in 1920 was $274,000, compared to $237,000 in 1919. Price of sirup per gallon in 1920 averaged $3.08 and in 1919, $2.31; of sugar, 45 cents per pound in 1920, and 36 cents in 1919.

LA FOLLETTE PARTY FACES SPLIT AS TWO SEEK NOMINATION

BLAINE AND DITHMAR WANT TO BE GOVERNOR AND REFUSE TO STEP DOWN FOR EACH OTHER

Madison.—Senator La Follette saw the bird of harmony fly out of his office window in Madison last week and disappear in political clouds.

Lieut. Gov. E. F. Dithmar and Attorney General John J. Blaine, and other high ups in the senator's faction, saw the little bird take flight. They are wondering if it will ever come back to roost.

The report comes from reliable sources in Madison that La Follette held a conference with Dithmar and Blaine and several other of his lieutenants last week to test out whether there was a disposition on the part of either Dithmar or Blaine to withdraw as gubernatorial candidates in the interest of harmony.

Neither showed the slightest disposition to step aside. For the present they are deadlocked.

Dithmar believes it is his turn to run for governor. Blaine feels that he is a stronger candidate than Dithmar.

Their respective friends among the La Follette insiders have taken sides in a determined sort of way, threatening a wide open break that even the senator himself may not be able to patch up.

La Follette, it is said, sent Dithmar and Blaine away with the understanding that during the next week or ten days they would try to reach an agreement between themselves as to which one should step out.

Talk Harmony Candidate

It was plainly intimated that if they failed, a general conference of La Follette men might be called to vote one of them out of the race in the hope of uniting La Follette's forces in the coming campaign.

There was talk of a third candidate—a harmony candidate to make the run with both Dithmar and Blaine on the sidelines.

The best information concerning the conference indicates that La Follette was inclined not to force the issue without giving the two candidates a little more time to get together themselves if possible. He seemed especially interested in ascertaining if there was any disposition on their part to do this.

Nothing but the pure cold water

SCRUBBING-BRUSHES, Soaps and Cleaning-Compounds may be entirely dispensed with if your floors are finished with FLOORENE.

An occasional mopping with clear cold or warm water is all that is required to keep them in perfect condition.

There never was a better name for a floor varnish—Nor was there ever a better varnish for floors:

Floorene

FLOORENE is not a cheap varnish, but it is economical because it wears, and wears, and wears.

FLOORENE is also suitable for Linoleum and all interior wood-work. It reflects a finish of the very highest quality. If you are going to build or have your floors refinished, insist on FLOORENE—you will not regret it.

American Varnish Co. Manufacturers

Uncle Sam Tractors

The Reason Why

The splendid popularity of Uncle Sam 20-30 farm tractors is directly traceable to the durability of the machine and its ability to stand up under all kinds of heavy duty and rough usage. Take the time to check up the following points of construction:

- 1st—The motor is constructed to work efficiently on kerosene. We test it on kerosene. It runs better on kerosene than it does on gas. Of course it is equipped with a kerosene carburetor—The Bennett which we consider to be the best—but it is a kerosene motor, not just a gasoline motor with a kerosene attachment.
- 2nd—The transmission will outlast the tractor itself. We sent our general specifications to Nuttall—the oldest manufacturers of transmissions and told them to build us a transmission that would be more than ample for all conditions regardless of price. They did it.
- 3rd—Timken roller bearings are used wherever rollers are possible. You'll agree there's nothing better.
- 4th—The whole tractor, motor, transmission, clutch, in fact all vital parts are enclosed in one solid dust proof unit assuring long service and minimum wear from dust.
- 5th—The belt pulley is set conveniently on the side—operates on a separate clutch—is governed in speed by the best governor we can buy.
- 6th—The cooling system is as complete as you'll find on the highest priced passenger cars and so efficient that there's no bug-bear of overheating on the Uncle Sam.

Come and see us; there is nothing secret about the manufacture of Uncle Sam Tractors.

WE WILL BE GLAD TO SEND YOU A CATALOGUE.

Making the Shoe Fit the Foot

ONE of the outstanding features of the efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is its ability to expand to meet conditions.

In 1919 there were 1,434,909 more motor vehicles in the United States than in 1918.

This enormous increase in automotive power made necessary a vast increase of distribution facilities in order that your car, wherever it might be, should never lose its usefulness because of an empty gasoline tank.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) anticipated this increasing demand and met it amply in the eleven states it serves with a fleet of 4306 motor trucks, a caravan of horse-drawn wagons, and a little army of 530,000 iron barrels, so that even in remote districts no tractor, truck or pleasure car, need be without fuel at any time.

Take into consideration the fact that of the 1,434,909 new motor vehicles put into service in 1919, approximately 573,964 went to farms, and you will appreciate the necessity for this vast distributive system.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) appreciates that the automobile has passed from the realm of luxury and has become an essential, and that gasoline to run it has become an industrial necessity.

It has taken pride in the fact that it has met this need in the spirit of service, that it has been keen in anticipating the wants of the public, and efficient in satisfying them through the most perfect distribution system in the world.

Little Hope of Relief For Victims of Catarrh

Unless Old-Time, Obsolete Treatment Is Discarded.

Doubtless during the mild summer months you have enjoyed some relief from the disease, because there is always less inflammation of the membranes during the summer, but do not make the mistake of thinking that your Catarrh is gone, for the very first raw, damp, wintry day, the delicate linings of the membranes will begin to again become irritated and sore, the air passages will begin to clog up, and soon you will find that your old enemy is still with you, with a fenish intention of making the winter as full of discomfort as ever.

What are you going to do about it? If you have had the disease for any length of time, the chances are that you have used enough local remedies to convince you that there is no cure for you in this method of treatment. Are you going to drag through another winter hawking and spitting and spraying constantly in an effort to unclog the stopped up air passages so that you can get your breath for awhile, knowing that these accumulations will immediately reappear—or are you going to discard this makeshift treatment, and use a little intelligence in an effort to get rid of this dis-

case that is such an annoyance and a constant handicap? You must accept the teachings of science, which shows that to get rid of any disease, you must treat it at its source, you must direct your efforts toward removing its cause, instead of being satisfied with slight temporary relief from its symptoms. You must root out from your blood the millions of tiny germs which cause Catarrh, so that there can be no more inflammation of the nose and throat, and choked up nasal passages that make breathing difficult and painful.

S. S. S., the fine old blood remedy, has given splendid results in the treatment of Catarrh, and you will be delighted with its effect on your case. It so purifies and cleanses the blood, that disease germs are eradicated, hence when the germs of your Catarrh are eliminated from the blood, you are on the right road to a permanent rid-dance from the disease. Go to your drug store, and get a bottle of S. S. S. to day and begin the real rational treatment that will give real results.

If you will write our medical department, we will take pleasure in giving instructions regarding the treatment of your own particular case. Address Chief Medical Ad- viser, 15 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.
